

Proclamation

MANUFACTURING DAY

October 6, 2017

WHEREAS, Colorado Springs is an innovation economy with manufacturing playing a critical role in the diverse climate of Colorado Springs; and

WHEREAS, Colorado Springs is a place where invention thrives, making the community one of the nation's top regions for business and careers and a great place for long-term investment; and

WHEREAS, El Paso County, Colorado has more than 116,000 employees working in manufacturing companies producing everything from aerospace and defense to beer; and

WHEREAS, Colorado manufacturers boost the state's economic growth, provide jobs for skilled workers and link to innovation in other sectors; and

WHEREAS, manufacturers contribute to the economic health of Colorado Springs and raise awareness of high-skilled career opportunities in manufacturing; and

WHEREAS, the City appreciates manufacturers that "make things happen".

NOW THEREFORE, I, Richard Skorman, President of the City of Colorado Springs City Council, do hereby proclaim October 6, 2017, as in Colorado Springs, in honor of manufacturing businesses in Colorado Springs and the innovative workforce that they employ.

MANUFACTURING DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Colorado Springs this October 6th, 2017

Richard Skorman, President
Colorado Springs City Council